Orientación sobre el uso de la guía

Esta es una guía que te dará las orientaciones para que construyas tu propio aprendizaje. Desarrolla lo solicitado paso a paso y consulta los enlaces de sitios web que se sugieren para ampliar los temas desde casa. No es necesario imprimir el documento, únicamente debes leer las orientaciones y resolver en tu cuaderno de clase.

Las siguientes actividades cubren del 27 al 30 de abril del 2020

1. Actividades

Actividad 1. Completa las palabras con las letras correctas. Al terminar, puedes ver las respuestas en el primer link del apartado 3 de esta guía.

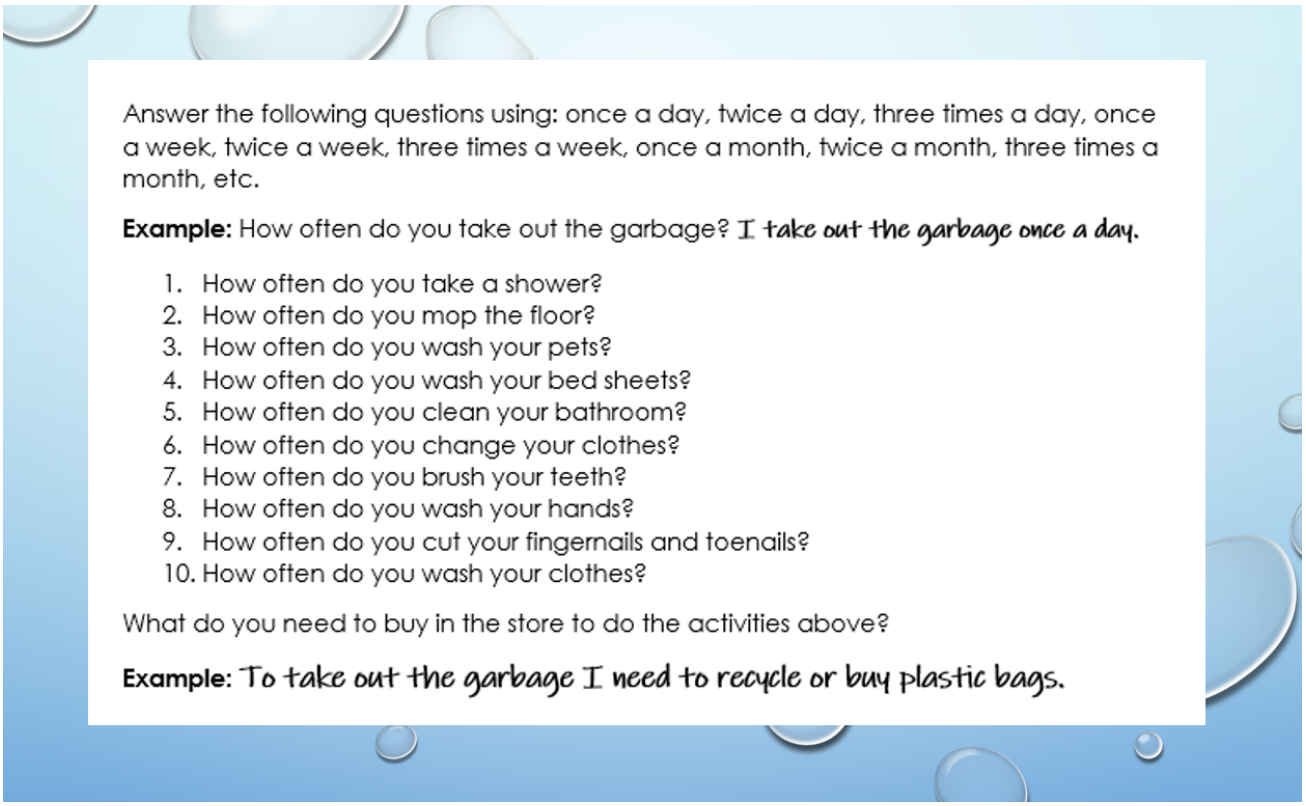
Actividad 2. Para el siguiente ejercicio, sigue las instrucciones a continuación:

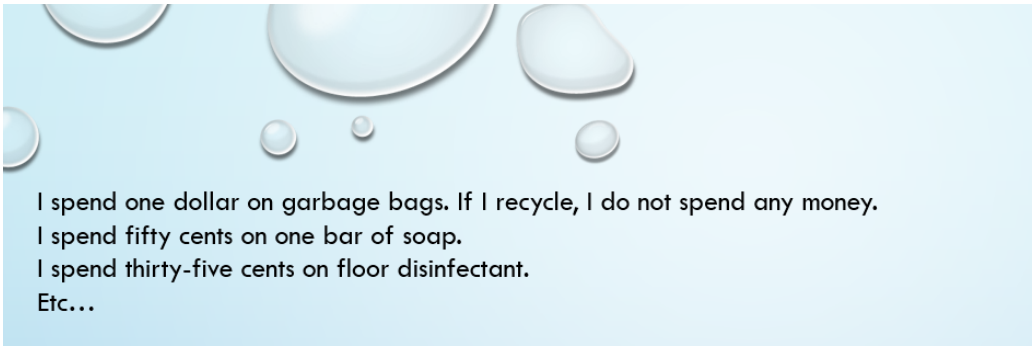
a) Responde las preguntas sobre hábitos de higiene en el hogar utilizando las expresiones de frecuencia que te damos en el ejercicio (once a day = una vez al día, etc).

b) Al terminar de responder las preguntas, escribe qué objetos de limpieza necesitarías comprar para llevar a cabo cada actividad.

c) Haz números de cuánto gastas al comprar los objetos de limpieza. Puedes ver el ejemplo para orientarte.

d) No olvides ver los ejemplos para orientarte mejor.





Actividad 3. Lee el siguiente texto y el diálogo; luego, contesta las preguntas.

Charles is going to the supermarket.

Charles is looking in his refrigerator. A refrigerator is often called a 'fridge' for short. People put things that need to stay cold in the refrigerator. Things that need to be frozen are put in the freezer. Charles has to go to the supermarket today so he is making a shopping list. People usually make a list of things to buy before they go to the store. If you make a list then you won't forget what to buy.

It has been a week since Charles went to the supermarket. There are only a few things in his refrigerator. There is a little milk and a little juice. There are a few eggs and a few apples. There is some cheese and some pasta noodles. There are a lot of onions and tomatoes but only one green pepper. There isn't any lettuce or garlic. There isn't any butter or bread either.

Charles is making dinner. He will start with a salad and then have spaghetti and meatballs with garlic bread for the main course. For dessert, he's making his famous apple pie with vanilla ice cream. His wife is excited because she doesn't have to cook tonight. She is helping him make a list for the supermarket.

Dialogue: Charles and his wife are making a list for the supermarket.

Charles: Ok honey, what do I need to buy?

Nancy: Well, do we have enough noodles?

Charles: We have some noodles but not enough.

Nancy: How about tomato sauce?

Charles: I don't see any tomato sauce.

Nancy: Are there any onions?

Charles: Yes, we have a lot of onions.

Nancy: Do we need any tomatoes or garlic?

Charles: There are a lot of tomatoes but there isn't any garlic.

Nancy: Are you making a salad?

Charles: Yes I am, but there isn't any lettuce.

Nancy: Are there any apples for the pie?

Charles: There are a few apples. Maybe I'll buy a couple more.

Nancy: Did you look in the freezer for ice cream?

Charles: There isn't any vanilla but there is some chocolate ice cream.

Nancy: You should get vanilla ice cream. It goes best with apple pie.

Charles: So, I need some noodles, a can of tomato sauce, some garlic, a head of lettuce and a few apples. Is that everything?

Nancy: Don't forget bread and ice cream.

Charles: That's right, a carton of vanilla ice cream and a loaf of bread.

Nancy: One more thing. Don't forget your list.
